

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY

A NEW SCHOOL OF THOUGHT

REFOCUSING ON LEARNING AND TEACHING IN VET

LEARNING, SHARING AND PARTICIPATING IN RESEARCH

A free half-day event in Vocational Education & Training (VET)
Research offered at the University of Ballarat and Victoria University

You can participate in this event at either venue: both are easily accessible by train.

University of Ballarat

Thursday November 20th
2pm – 5pm

followed by informal drinks

Old Chemistry Lecture Theatre,
Building C, SMB campus,
Lydiard St, Ballarat

Registration: Michelle Trethowan
m.trethowan@ballarat.edu.au
or 03 5327 9748

Victoria University

Friday November 21st 2pm – 5pm

followed by informal drinks

Sunshine Convention Centre,
EJ Whitten Building
460 Ballarat Road, Sunshine

Registration: Leonie Beaton
leonie.beaton@vu.edu.au
or 03 9919 7157

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Terri Seddon (Monash University)

Researching VET: Considering the Occupational Expertise of VET Teachers

Dr Peter Smith (E&T Thinking)

Learning in Workplaces: Apprentices and Trainees

Dr Peter Waterhouse (Workplace Learning Initiatives)

The ACE Experience: Researching Teaching & Learning in Community Settings

AN UPDATE ON VET RESEARCH AT UB AND VU

Speakers from each institution

NETWORKING AND DISCUSSION TIME ON THE CONFERENCE THEMES

‘What’s hot in teaching and learning’ and ‘What’s hot in VET research’.
Please come prepared, if you like, to share your own research or your views about what needs to be researched.