

OctoberVET

Sydney – 30 September 2008

Vocational Learning – Enterprise – Transitions

Australian VET Research Association in partnership invites you to
VET RESEARCH SNAPSHOTS – CONNECTIONS, CAPACITY, COLLABORATION

Brief:

AVETRA is committed to building and promoting research capability, to ensure a rigorous and well informed VET system. OctoberVET has been designed to provide local and regional forums to share and enhance VET research.

Recent Sydney October/VETs have focussed on a wide range of VET Research; The Future for VET Providers, Topical Research Areas and Capacity building for VET research.

This year we are giving focus to:

- VET in Schools Research Snapshots in relation to Connections, Capacity and Collaborations
- The focus is being adopted in conjunction with the VETNetwork Annual conference being held at Darling Harbour in Sydney

Organising Team:

Bobby Harreveld, Janice Martyn, Sandra Kenman, Sue Roy, Robin Booth, Carmel Ellis, Lindy Cassidy and Kevin Heys

We aim:

1. To open up opportunities for building VET Research Capacity
2. To improve the understanding of changes that are occurring in VET in Schools
3. To provide insight to research development that are occurring in VET.

Presentations, Work Shops and Refreshments:

- Dr Kitty te Riele, University of Technology Sydney – “Re-Engaging Marginalised Young People” and “Second-chance Schooling”
- Professor Margaret Vickers, Professor Michael Singh, University of Western Sydney & Dr Bobby Harreveld, CQUniversity – “Students’ management of workplace relations”
- Mr Terry O’Hanlon-Rose, CEO & Director Australian Technical College, North Brisbane – “Effectiveness of employment-based training models in senior secondary VET in Schools (VETiS) programs”
- Mr Mike Frost and Dr Reg Allen, Tasmanian Qualifications Authority – “Career Aspirations: analysis of cross-sectoral pathway planning data”
- Professor Stephen Crump (University of Newcastle & TAFE NSW Hunter Institute) & Ms Marie Larkings (TAFE NSW, Hunter Institute) – “Researching TVET: DIY!”

Workshops will focus on Connections, Capacity, and Collaborations in relation to VET in schools, followed by refreshments.
